

Plymouth – October 2014

“Another weekend of pure sailing fun.”

“Brilliant – again! Bit gusty too”

Stage 4 and above sailors spent last weekend in Plymouth. Centred at Mount Batten once again, everyone enjoyed the coastal area and gained from the experience. Winds were good & the racing was as competitive as always.

Check out the photos on the gallery page & if you have others please send them in.